

The Department of Behavioral Health (DBH)

consists of three divisions:

- 1) Social Services
- 2) Mental Health and,
- 3) Alcohol and Substance Abuse.

The DBH mission is to provide trauma-informed integrated services and programs to address the biopsychosocial needs and enhance the emotional and physical well-being of Ysleta del Sur Pueblo tribal members and their families.

Department of Behavioral Health

9314 Juanchido Lane
El Paso, TX 79907

Phone: 915-860-6170
Fax: 915-242-6556

Emergency Numbers

Police, Fire or Medical Emergencies: 911

Tribal Police Dispatch: (915) 860-9653

Social Services Hotline: (915) 479-2591

ASAP Emergency Hotline: (915) 490-8073

Department of Behavioral Health

*Honoring our Traditions
by Embracing our Children*

Social Services Division

Promotes self-sufficiency, family unity, and economic stability.

- Advocacy
- Case Management
- Child Welfare Services
- Court Services
- Crisis Intervention
- Daycare Services
- Elders' Services
- Food Pantry
- General Assistance
- Medical Services
- Referrals
- 24 Hour Hotline

Mental Health Division

Offers comprehensive outpatient mental health and psychiatric services.

- Child and Adult Psychiatric Evaluations
- Individual Therapy
- Family Therapy
- Marriage Counseling
- Medication Management
- Anger Management Classes
- Parenting Classes
- Psycho-educational Groups
- Outpatient Psychotherapy
- Ages 5 and up
- Referrals
- 24 Hour Hotline

Alcohol & Substance Abuse Division

Offers a comprehensive array of preventative, educative, and treatment services to reduce the incidence and prevalence of alcohol and substance abuse.

- Prevention
- Intervention
- Rehabilitation
- Outpatient
- Accutox
- Support Groups
- 12 Step Program
- Referrals
- 24 Hour Hotline

Promoting healthy lifestyles, families, and communities